

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The Y. M. C. A. Review was issued yesterday. It contains a vast amount of interesting reading matter bearing on association work and is a most creditable issue. The following important announcements are made:

Sunday, Dec. 3, at 4 p. m.—Lecture on "The First English Bibles" by Rev. Mr. Westvelt.

Monday, Dec. 4, at 4 p. m.—Lecture before the Triangle Literary Club on "Wireless Telegraphy," by Mr. F. J. Cross.

Thursday, Dec. 7, at 7:30 p. m.—The Camera Club Print Exhibition.

Saturday, Dec. 16.—Field day at the Kamehameha Manual School.

The lecture of Rev. Mr. Westvelt, December 3, will be of particular interest to students of the association Bible classes.

The Review tells of the annual Field Day that is to be held at Kamehameha, December 16. The following list of events is given: 50 yard race, 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, 120 yard hurdle race, 220 yard hurdle race, pole vault, high jump, throwing the discus, shot put (16 lbs), hammer throw (16 lbs), running broad jump, three-leg race.

December 7 is the time set for the Camera Club exhibit. In the competition will be included marine views, landscapes and groups (two or more persons).

Other articles deal with Thanksgiving, the Physical Department, Educational classes, Friedenthal recitals, Rawel, Free Entertainment and other interesting subjects.

EJECTMENT SUIT.

Charles Williams has brought suit for ejectment against S. K. Kuhlani, administrator of the estate of R. P. Kuhlani, deceased, and those interested in the estate of R. P. Kuhlani, on the grounds that the defendants have unlawfully taken possession of a certain piece of property in Kukulhaele on the island of Hawaii which the plaintiff claims. This piece of land is purported to be 444-100 acres in area. The majority of the defendants are now residing in the Districts of Hamakua and the case will come up before Judge Wilder. Some of the defendants are residing in Wailua on this island.

Perry's Wailua Decree.

"It is ordered, adjudged and decreed that B. F. Dillingham do stand charged in respect to said 10,000 shares of the capital stock of the Wailua Agricultural Company as a trustee for the benefit of persons to whom said shares were sold by plaintiffs; and that the Wailua Agricultural Company by its appropriate officers shall issue certificates for said stock to the persons to whom said stock was sold by said complainants. It having been made to appear to the court that complainants are willing to accept from said Dillingham $65,000 in full of all claims and demands."

"It is further adjudged and decreed that the payment of said $65,000 and the costs of this action amounting to two hundred and fifty nine dollars, be paid by said B. F. Dillingham."

Surprise Party.

Yesterday being the anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Q. H. Berrey, a party of some twenty-five of her young friends called at her home on Emma street last night and completely surprised her. With them the young people took musical instruments and, as soon as they had invaded the place, began festivities. Dancing was indulged in up to midnight. Then refreshments were served, and the party broke up.
